Subject: Implementation of NAC Tech Test in State of Punjab

It is stated that the Department is going to start NAC-Tech Test for final year technical graduates. The brief background of this NAC-Tech Certification is as under:-

NAC-Tech define a generic Engineering Industry standard for hiring at the entry level that will certainly help in assessing the training needs, enhance employability and provide greater correlation between education to employment. The objective of architecting an effective 'Assessment and Certification Framework' is that it will create an impact that will help create an employable talent pool with benchmarked requisite skills. This process will also enable higher conversion rate of the candidates coming through the process, better fitment of on the job performance of certified candidates and enhancement in the size and quality of the talent pool.

The NAC-Tech Certification is applicable for final year B.E., B.Tech, MCA students technical graduates who are eligible for employment thereafter. The diagnostic test is unproctored, is administered by college staff for the purpose of assessing the 'as is' scenario. It also enables the student to know his specific weak areas and interventions required. The NAC-Tech Certification test which has two parts- Part A testing verbal ability, analytical reasoning, learning ability, programming and written English skills while Part-B is discipline specific and test in disciplines like IT Concepts, Electronics & Communication, Mechanical, Civil, Chemical, Textile, Bio- Technology, Electrical and Telecommunication Engineering. Candidates depending on their specialization can take a test in any one area.

The course fee for NAC-Tech Certification is Rs. 600/- only per student. So you are requested to popularise this test and create awareness among students and also get a preliminary survey conducted to know the number of students interested in this test.

Please treat it as most urgent and convey to this office about the number of students interested in this test in your institution by 20.08.2009
